September 14, 2015

On September 18, 2015 the Easton Police Department in conjunction with the Maryland Safety Highway Office will be conducting a sobriety check point in Easton during the evening hours. The check point will be conducted within the guidelines established under the "Check Point Strike Force" initiative. The operational goal is to educate drivers of the danger associated with drinking and driving. The operation will focus on reducing the number of drunk or drugged drivers on Easton's roadways.
